DPU is expected to return to growth in 2025

SINGAPORE | REAL ESTATE (REIT) | UPDATE

- The S-REITs Index rose 3.5% in September, continuing its 4.2% rally from August. The top performer for the month was Manulife US REIT (MUST SP, non-rated), gaining 25.3%, while the worst performer was Frasers Centrepoint Trust (FCT SP, ACCUMULATE, TP S$2.38), falling 3.4%. All sub-sectors posted share price gains in September, attributed to the 50bps interest rate cut by the Fed. The overseas commercial sub-sector was the top performer in September, gaining 9.4%, while the worst-performing sub-sector was retail, which grew by 0.1%.
- We expect most REITs to post YoY DPU declines in 3Q24 due to higher interest expenses. Given the high percentage of loans on fixed rates, it will take time for them to benefit from lower interest rates. We expect a turnaround in 2025 as S-REITs begin to benefit from lower rates with the gradual expiration of interest rate hedges. S-REITs are now trading at a forward dividend yield spread of c.3.1% (-1.3x s.d.) and a P/NAV of 0.9x (-0.7x s.d.).
- We remain OVERWEIGHT on S-REITs, preferring those with a healthy balance sheet, strong sponsors, and improving operating metrics, particularly those with potential for higher rental reversions. We also favour REITs with a lower interest rate hedging ratio, as they stand to benefit most from interest rate cuts. Our preferred sub-sectors are retail and hospitality. Catalysts for growth include a pick-up in the economy, asset recycling, and further interest rate cuts. Cromwell European REIT (CERT SP, BUY, TP €1.91), OUE REIT (OUEREIT SP, BUY, TP S$0.40), and CapitaLand Ascott Trust (CLAS SP, BUY, TP S$1.04) are our top picks.

SECTOR ROUND-UP

The S-REITs Index gained 3.5% in September after the Fed cut its Fed Funds Rate by 50 bps to a target range of 4.75%-5% on 18 September. We expect S-REITs to continue their recent rally and to outperform in 4Q24 and 2025 as with lower interest rates, S-REITs will benefit from 1) lower financing costs, 2) higher dividend yield spreads over bonds, and 3) higher property valuations as cap rates compress. However, we expect most REITs to post a YoY DPU decline in 3Q24 due to higher interest expenses, as it will take time for them to benefit from the lower rates, given the high percentage of loans on fixed rates. DPU is expected to return to organic growth in 2025 with the gradual expiration of interest rate hedges and a lower hedging ratio. Based on our sensitivity analysis, every 100bps decrease in interest rates will improve S-REITs DPU by c.5% on average.

Transaction volume picking up

In early September, CapitaLand Integrated Commercial Trust (CICT SP, non-rated) announced the acquisition of a 50% interest in ION Orchard from its sponsor CapitaLand Investment Limited (CLI SP, BUY, TP S$3.38) for a total acquisition outlay of S$1.1bn. This was followed by CapitaLand Ascott Trust's (CLAS SP, BUY, TP S$1.04) proposed acquisition of lyf Funan Singapore for a total acquisition outlay of S$265mn, and the divestment of Citadines Karasuma-Gojo Kyoto for JPY6.18bn (S$53mn), which represents a 40% premium to book value and an exit EBITDA yield of 0.3%. Other transactions include Mapletree Industrial Trust's (MINT SP, non-rated) proposed acquisition of a freehold multi-story mixed-use facility in Tokyo, Japan, for an acquisition outlay of JPY14.9bn (S$133.6mn) and CapitaLand Ascendas REIT's (CLAR SP, non-rated) divestment of 21 Jalan Burok in Singapore for S$112.8mn, which represents a 67% premium to its valuation. We believe there will be more transactions in the coming months as interest rates decline and REITs focus on inorganic growth opportunities.

Hospitality

Singapore's international visitor arrivals grew 12% YoY in September 24 to 1.27mn, reaching 87% of pre-COVID levels (Figure 8). Visitor arrivals from China grew 60% YoY in September 24 and are now 13% below pre-COVID levels. RevPAR in Singapore grew by 1.5% YoY in August 24, after falling 4.7% YoY in July 24, due to a 1.4ppt increase in occupancy.

INVESTMENT RECOMMENDATION OVERWEIGHT on SREITs (Maintained)

S-REITs are now trading a forward dividend yield of c.5.8%, 0.6x s.d. below the mean (Figure 5), and a P/NAV of 0.96x, 0.7x s.d. below the mean of 1.03x (Figure 4) after the S-REITs Index continued to rally 3.5% in September 24. With interest rates expected to be cut by 100bps in 2024, we think this is a good time for investors to reposition into SREITs. However, we still expect muted DPU growth in FY24 as higher finance costs continue to erode DPU, with a recovery expected in 2025.

The dividend yield spread has fallen from 3.3% to 3.1% MoM and is now 1.3x s.d. below the mean of 4% (Figure 2). After the 50bps interest rate cut, we expect more rate cuts on the horizon, and we expect the dividend yield spread to widen as the SG10Y yield continues to fall.

Sub-sector preferences: Hospitality and Retail

We think the hospitality sub-sector will remain resilient due to higher RevPAR from improving occupancy, supported by the return of international visitor arrivals, expected to reach pre-COVID levels in 2025, and normalising ADRs. The expansion of the S.E.A. Aquarium and the completion of Minion Land in Universal Studios Singapore are expected to drive tourism further. The return of international visitor arrivals could also boost tenant sales and sentiment. We expect high single-digit positive rent reversion for suburban malls and double-digit positive rent reversion for downtown malls.
